TWENTIETH CENTURY FANCY CANCELLATIONS

We devote most of this edition of U. S. CANCELLATION CLUB NEWS to more Twentieth Century Fancy Cancellations from the collection of Member William C. Walker. Our initial selection from Mr. Walker's fancies appeared in the September, 1978 issue with a descriptive story by Mr. Walker.

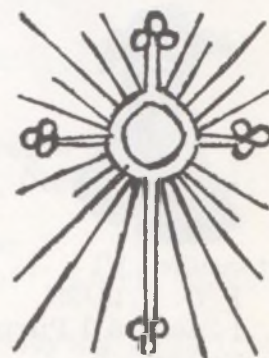

Mr. Walker is engaged in compiling as many of the Twentieth Century Fancy Cancellations as possible to update the 1952 book by Foster W. Loso and Heyliger De Windt. Mr. Walker estimates there may be anywhere up to 650 additional fancies still to be recorded. He asks that any member or other reader of the U. S. CANCELLATION CLUB NEWS who is aware of additional cancels send a copy or contact Mr. Walker. His address is 102 Elizabeth Street, Clearfield, Pennsylvania.

EDITORIAL

Since taking over as editor of this publication in May of 1975, we have been striving to improve the quality of the Newsletter, and to make it responsible to all members, not just a few. For four years we have continually had to wheedle, cajole and talk members into writing articles for our publication (with the exception of a concerned few who have readily contributed to the Newsletter).

The July issue is arriving in September. It is arriving because of a paucity of useable material. The proliferation of Newsletters by so many philatelic organizations has caused a dearth of material for each. Help! Help! Help!

Dear Editor:

Wonder if any readers know if this type of roller cancellation is experimental. I've never seen any other metal roller of this wavy line type with month/day/hour/year.

Sincerely,

Warren Tingley

More On The COLUMBIA/IELFIELD

John W. Koontz, Co-Editor of Machine Cancel Forum, has sent us the following information on Columbia, Columbia/Ielfield, and Ielfield cancels, excerpted from the August 1942 issue of "XX-Killers":

The Ielfield machine, though always associated with Columbia machines (Silver Creek, New York) was a separate product made -- according to available name plates -- in Forestville, New York. Because of the similarity of the machines, identification has been difficult, confusing, and often impossible.

Chronology:

- 1898 - origins of Columbia
- 1900 - Columbia Postal Supply Company, incorporated at Silver Creek, New York, owned by Ielfield family.

Dies for both companies were cut during this time by an independent contractor in the Greater New York area, who made no uniform distinction in style between the two. However he did sporadically use several types of wave killers, probably the effect of different workmen doing the cutting. While Ielfield was independent he took in for repair or rebuilding Columbia machines, which subsequently went out under his name plate.
